Align the text content in mobile view so that the page text fills the width of the screen.

In English please haha

humility would be a godsend

Responsiveness for mobile. Icons to Instagram and Twitter working.

The writing is cut off when viewing from Mobile phone, can't see everything. BUT the nave bar works very well. And yes, your art is godly 😂

Make the internet forget this

I couldn't read some text on my mobile.

Destop site looks great! But mobile needs some work - a lot of text cut off. But the destop really looks good. Well done jack.
